

The Court has reviewed Plaintiff's Petition for an Award of Attorney Fees under the EAJA, and concludes the statutory requirements are met. By Order and Judgment of Remand dated December 21, 2020, the Court remanded this case to defendant Commissioner for further proceedings pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). A claimant seeking judicial review of a final decision denying Social Security disability benefits may recover attorney's fees if he or she receives a "sentence four" remand. See Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292, 295-96 (1993).

Attorney's fees may not be awarded in excess of $125.00 per hour – the maximum statutory rate under § 2412(d)(2)(A) – unless the Court finds that an increase in the cost of living or a special factor such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys justifies a higher fee. 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A). The decision to increase the hourly rate is not automatic and remains at the discretion of the district court. McNulty v. Sullivan, 886 F.2d 1074 (8th Cir. 1989). The hourly rate should be increased, however, where there is "uncontested proof of an increase in the cost of living sufficient to justify hourly attorney's fees of more than [$125] per hour," such as the Consumer Price Index. Johnson v. Sullivan, 919 F.2d 503, 504, 505 (8th Cir. 1990). In this case, Plaintiff has presented uncontested evidence of an increase in the cost of living. The Court agrees with Plaintiff that a cost of living increase is appropriate as requested.

Because Plaintiff prevailed and is not otherwise precluded from receiving attorney fees, the Court finds that he is entitled to attorney's fees in the amount of Four Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty-Three Dollars and Eighty Cents ($4,253.80). Despite Plaintiff's request for the Court to make the fee payable directly to Plaintiff's attorney, as an assignee, the Court must instead make the fee payable to Plaintiff as the litigant. See Astrite v. Ratliff, 560 U.S. 586, 593 (2010) (holding that EAJA fees are payable to the prevailing party and may be subject to offset to satisfy any pre-existing debt owed to the United States); see also Johnson v. Colvin, No. 4:11-CV-1599 AGF, 2013 WL 5567711, at *1 (E.D. Mo. Oct. 9, 2013) (“The Court understands Ratliff to require that the EAJA award be made directly to Plaintiff.”)

Accordingly,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff Robert Castillo’s Petition for Award of Attorney Fees [ECF No. 26] is GRANTED.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Defendant Commissioner of Social Security Administration shall pay attorney’s fees under the Equal Access Justice Act in the amount of Four Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty-Three Dollars and Eighty Cents ($4,253.80).

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that said award shall be made payable to Plaintiff Robert Castillo.

So Ordered this 31st day of March, 2021.
